

Stephen Sigler Accepted into American Board of Trial Advocates

San Diego, California, December 11, 2018 — Shareholder Stephen T. Sigler, has been accepted into the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA).

ABOTA dedicates itself to the preservation and promotion of the Seventh Amendment, which guarantees the right to civil jury trials. Members in this prestigious invitation-only group must have tried a minimum of 10 civil jury trials to conclusion. More than 7,600 lawyers and judges are involved in ABOTA chapters in all 50 states.

"ABOTA is one of the nation's most effective organizations in championing the ethics, professionalism and principles of the legal profession, and I'm honored to be part of this select group," Mr. Sigler said.

Mr. Sigler represents clients in a variety of professional negligence defense cases, personal injury matters as well as providing counsel on wills and trust matters in federal and state courts throughout California and the United States.

Mr. Sigler's litigation expertise includes representing a number private parties, physicians, businesses and local hospitals in litigation matters and trials that have ranged from one week issues to multiple parties and month long litigation. Mr. Sigler has extensive experience with case development, alternative resolution and actual trial experience. A graduate of The University of Kansas Law School in 1996, Mr. Sigler also received his undergraduate degree from Kansas University. Mr. Sigler was also a past president of the San Diego Defense Lawyers and has been recognized for his defense work by organizations such as DRI, the Voice of the Defense Bar.
