Background

Since 1964, Neil Dymott's main focus has been resolution of civil disputes. For over 45 years, we have built a reputation throughout Southern California as highly effective civil trial attorneys with superior legal expertise and a successful history in insurance defense practice and numerous other civil matters. Neil Dymott has successfully handled landmark cases on a statewide basis both at the trial and appellate levels. We combine our expertise, trial skills and creativity to achieve extraordinary results in the representation of our clients.

We take pride in our long history of successful client representations in state and federal court. Our attorneys are well-versed in all types of civil litigation, including:

- Construction
- Personal injury
- Premises liability
- Errors and omissions
- Insurance defense
- Insurance coverage issues
- Contract disputes
- Contractor liability
- Toxic tort litigation
- Residential care facilities
- Community care centers

Neil Dymott handles litigation involving almost every type of civil matter, including general liability matters for insurance companies, businesses, and governmental entities. With our broad general liability experience we provide a practical, aggressive approach to our clients' needs. We carefully examine the facts and together with our clients, develop an appropriate strategy to reach a prompt, cost-efficient resolution of the dispute consistent with the client's goal. Our well-earned reputation comes from our experience to know when alternative dispute resolution will better serve our clients' interests or the decision to aggressively pursue cases through trial. Our clients rely on our ability to anticipate and vigorously defend claims for damages, including class actions and multi-party, multi-jurisdictional matters.

For more information about our general liability practice, please see our list of attorneys in this practice area.
